

April

April
Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
School Library Media Month National Poetry Month Zoo and Aquarium Month Humor Month Frog Month			Daylight Savings Time begins, 2:00 a.m. April 2			1
School librarian: a magician who can combine a child with a book and open a door to the future. - The Frugal Librarian
2 Peanut Butter & Jelly Day: Write a recipe for making a PB&J sandwich.	3 Write a poem about your school library and take it to your principal.	4 National Library Workers' Day	5 Thank your School Librarian Day.	6 Take a gift to the people who work in your school library.	7 Read your book for 30 minutes today.	8 How many words can you make from National Library Week?
National Library Week: Change Your World @ Your Library
9 Read a book about frogs. Go outside and read today, if it's nice.	10 Happy Birthday Joseph Pulitzer Why is he important?	11 Find a joke book in the library. Practice and tell a joke to your friends.	12 Passover begins at sundown. Find a book about the history and meaning of Passover.	13 Name 3 of your best friends. Write a name poem* in your journal for each one of them.	14 Happy Birthday Anne Sullivan Who is she? Find and read her biography.	15 Write a story about something that happened during spring break.
16 Easter Sunday Find a book about the history and meaning of Easter.	17 Write a poem with Zoo words.	18  Write a poem about a frog to celebrate Frog Month.	19 Plan a party for your favorite book characters. What food will you serve? What games will you play?	20 St. George's Day is April 23. Read a story about St. George to find out why he's famous.	21 Kindergarten Day Volunteer to read to a kindergarten class today.	22 Jellybean Day Bake a cake and decorate it with jellybeans. Get an adult to help you.
23 World Book & Copyright Day What is intellectual property? Why is this day important?	24 Teens read newspapers and magazines an average of 7 minutes per day. How long do you read newspapers and magazines?	25 Holocaust Remembrance Day (Yom HaShoah) Read a book about the Holocaust.	26 Read your book for 26 minutes today.	27 In honor of Tell-A-Story Day tomorrow, write a story and tell it to a friend.	28  Arbor Day How many kinds of trees can you identify?	29 Greenery Day – Japan. Plant some flower seeds. Read the package to learn how to take care of them.
30 Review your reading log. How many books have you read this year?	Clip art: http://www.kidsdomain.com/holiday/spring/clip.html *Name poem: Write the first name vertically on the page. Begin each line of the poem with the corresponding letter of the name. The poem should describe the person whose name you selected.
2006

2006